

PERSONAL DATA AND ACCESS TO INSERT E-LEARNING PLATFORM (PRIVACY POLICY)

1. In order to gain access to the INSERT e-learning platform, the users of the platform must complete the registration process on the platform using the corresponding form.
2. The data collected during the registration is limited by ensuring the anonymity of the users, as users can use a nickname or their first name. The data required to register is the user name, the e-mail and the password that the user chooses to record. If the password is lost, a new one is sent to an email, but it is not logged in the INSERT platform.
3. Access to the “forum for social learning e-centres” is intended for users of the respective e-learning platform and is governed by the rules of good conduct relating to these sites.
4. Site administrators unilaterally reserve the right to temporarily or permanently prohibit a user from accessing the respective sites if it is judged that the behavior of that user is inconsistent with the rules of conduct of the respective sites
